

Quick Facts

- Offers 150 years of archives from one of the nation's most historically significant newspapers
- Covers people, issues and events from Chicago, the nation and the world
- Fosters primary source research skills and helps students think critically
- Facilitates classroom and homework assignments, lesson plans and more
- Provides authoritative, staff-written news articles as well as advertisements, illustrations, editorials and birth, marriage and death notices

Over 150 years of respected news coverage

Published since 1849, the Chicago Tribune is one of the nation's oldest continuously published newspapers. Its vast historical archive—available exclusively through NewsBank—provides students and teachers with a unique and fascinating look at noteworthy people, issues and events from the past 150 years.

An ideal classroom tool

Covering Chicago, the nation and the world, the Chicago Tribune Historical Archive is a valuable tool for research papers, classroom and homework assignments, lesson plans and more. It fosters primary source research skills, helps students think critically, and provides a valuable foundation for the study of government; politics, language arts, and history. Additionally, NewsBank's powerful search engine and intuitive interface enable students and teachers alike to quickly and easily retrieve relevant information.

A range of local, national and international topics

In addition to authoritative, staff-written news articles and eyewitness reporting, the Chicago Tribune Historical Archive provides advertisements; illustrations; editorials; birth, marriage and death notices; and more to provide a glimpse into the everyday life and culture of historical Americans. It covers such topics as:

Architecture	U.S. Presidencies	The Korean War
Art Reviews	National and Chicago Area	The Vietnam War
Chicago Ethnic Communities	Sports	U.S. & Russia/USSR Relations
Chicago Gangsters	Politicians	World War I
Chicago Mayors	Progressive Era	World War II
Chicago Stocks/Commodities Exchanges	Race Relations	And much more!
The Civil War	Reconstruction
Crime	The Arts
	The Cold War

For more information, contact a NewsBank representative by calling 800.762.8182 or emailing sales@newsbank.com.